Question: Comments instructor or courseDr. Braver is organized, passionate and inclusive. He is a superior-quality moderator and fosteror of discussion. It was a joy to come to his class every day. No matter what each persons different views were, he made each of us feel welcome and accepted, even if we said something (unintentionally) that might have offended another group or a single student. Dr. Braver excels at presenting the facts, fostering discussion and redirecting as needed. Dr. Braver is one of the most organized people I have ever met. You can tell that by the organization and posts of his blackboard page, his personal website, as well as his syllabus and all the assignment instructions. His organization is really impressive. I think his organization shows how much he is invested in teaching and his students, because it takes time and energy to be organized. Dr. Braver, you rock!! And thank you for being a proud ally for LGBTQIA+ takedents. The way you wove objective truths related to the LGBTQIA+ community into the curriculum was inspiring and taught me a lot. You are an example of someone actively practicing allyship, and that is impressive.BraverI have enjoyed being in Dr. Bravers class and he made the transition to online flawless.
